Richard Martin Joins MW

February 20, 2018 – Billings, MT. Mountain West Commercial Real Estate (MW) is pleased to announce that Richard Martin has joined the team. Richard is passionate about commercial real estate. He has a broad background across several industries. Richard also owns two local companies, Baker Transfer & Storage and Jim's Electric, which gives him unique insight into the needs of business owners.

Richard earned his degree in business administration from Arizona State in 1990. He then moved to California where he worked as a manufacturer's representative for the Browning Arms Company for five years. In 1996, he and his wife, Kim, founded the successful import company Triad Sportswear. They sold that business in 2000. They purchased Econo Print and doubled sales in four years. Missing the hustle, Richard returned to California as an owner in the rep group More & Molloy. The family finally settled in Billings in 2008.

Mountain West Commercial Real Estate was founded in 2009 by a group of regionally dominant brokers. This unique assembly of talent had a simple mission statement then and now: To operate a commercial real estate brokerage not focused on being the biggest, but being the best. This simple core value resonates even stronger today as we are fiercely dedicated to providing superior service to our clients throughout the United States. We believe that we are uniquely adapted to help our clients.
